In Memoriam

BLAIR HEATON

"A great deal of the joy of life consists in doing perfectly, or at least to the best of one's ability, everything which he attempts to do. There is a sense of satisfaction, a pride in surveying such a work . . . a work which is rounded, full, exact, complete in all its parts . . . It is this conscientious completeness which turns work into art."

—WILLIAM MATHEWS

In the short time he was among us, Blair Heaton quietly displayed the essential qualities of manhood. His life was characterized by dedication to his chosen profession, boundless love for his family, and thrill for sports. He gave his talents unsparingly to his alma mater. The influence of Blair Heaton's life will not pass but linger on in memory.

IN THE SPRINGTIME . . .

A Campus Full of Color, Warmth, and Activity

The day's activities are highlighted by the presence of the queen and her court. Standing on the left and right of Queen Susan Apgar are Carolyn Shryock and Stephanie Haase, ladies-in-waiting. In the foreground are left to right: Janet Zortman, June Nonnemacher, Frederic and Winifred Reuning, Virginia Alexander, Mildred Barabas, and Helen Harding.

President Gustave Weber covers the shining locks of Queen Susan with the symbolic May Day crown.

MAY DAY 1960

A spirit of festivity turned the gloomy skies away as May Day 1960 saw the crowning of Queen Susan Apgar. Surrounded by her court of beauties, the Queen graciously presided over the merriment presented in her honor. Lovely Susan, a senior in Music Education, will undoubtedly be considered a most attractive teacher.

Spain is represented via a bull fight.

The theme, "From All the Nations", guided us on a quick tour of the Scandinavian countries, Spain, France, Italy, and Japan, as well as the United States. Who will forget Monsieur Engle's display of typical Parisienne driving techniques? The combined choral arrangement of "America Our Heritage" concluded the program. But through the day the clouds hung heavy . . .

"How do you do," say the Holland Fraulein.

. . . AND THEN IT RAINED!

ORIENTATION

The largest freshman class in the history of S. U. was introduced to its first phase of college life by orientation co-chairmen, Gil Askew and Elaine Turner. A heavy schedule was arranged for them, and the bewildered freshmen caught a glimpse of what their next four years at Susquehanna would be like.

"Answers to those many questions can be found in the Student Handbook," explains Dorothy Anderson, editor, to freshmen Joan and Joyce Lowry.

Get acquainted dances, song fests, informative meetings . . . these events were all a part of orientation.

FOOTBALL 1960

With the new head coach, Jim Garrett, in command of the 1960 Crusader football team, football fortunes at Susquehanna reached a new, exciting peak. By providing fans with eight Saturdays of action-packed, hard-nosed football, the team established a national record by allowing opposing elevens a stingy 17 points.

Plagued by injuries throughout the entire season, Coach Garrett turned to his bench repeatedly and never failed to produce a suitable replacement in a crisis. Co-captains Dick Derrick and Neal "Dutch" Rebeck, both of whom sustained injuries, played great football to round out their college football careers in fine fashion.

MANY ZEROS DEFENSIVE HEROES

In the first annual Sunbury Kiwanis Charities Football Festival, played before an overflow crowd at Sunbury, the 1960 Crusaders, featuring the debut of head coach Jim Garrett, rolled up their initial victory of the season at the expense of Lycoming College. John Luscko provided most of the scoring punch, scoring two touchdowns, one on a ninety-yard return of the second half kick-off. Receiving post-game kudos for their performances were Ben DiFrancesco, voted most valuable lineman, and John Luscko, most valuable back.

Kerstetter bulls, Lycoming pulls; Hauser checks yardage.

Terry and the Vikings.

The Bears of Ursinus College suffered profusely from the Crusaders well-rounded attack, while receiving for their efforts, a well-rounded goose egg. Frosh signal-caller Don Green maneuvered the Orange up and down the gridiron at will, scoring on two occasions to account for a fair share of the 33-0 score.

Swarthmore followed suit, although it took some doing for the Garrett-planned offensive to conquer a really stubborn Garnet defense. Don Green and Terry Kissinger provided one touchdown each for the Crusaders.

CRUSADERS BOW TO VIKING FIND WAYNESBURG MORE TO LIKING

Upsala took advantage of a defensive let down late in the game, turning what appeared to be a Susquehanna Homecoming victory into an agonizing 8-7 defeat. Up the fjord without a paddle during most of the contest, the Vikings scored only minutes after a Derrick to Kissinger aerial produced the lone Crusader score.

Slamming the door in the faces of Waynesburg, Larry Kerstetter, frosh fullback, carried the Crusader offense, while DiFrancesco and company played a supporting role worthy of an Oscar.

DiFRANCESCO SUPPLIES SPARK NEW DEFENSIVE MARK

While the Colonels pounded away in vain at the Crusader rock-ribbed defense, Susquehanna leather-luggers were also having a sticky time. But S. U. emerged on top of a 9-0 tally by virtue of some fancy pass-receiving by Mike Rupprecht and a field goal by Tom Samuel.

Dick Derrick and Larry Kerstetter maneuvered for touchdowns while DiFrancesco and cohorts contained the Cape May Coast-Guarders. The result — another shutout for the Crusaders.

The Garrettmen wound up a successful campaign in fine fashion by trouncing the Dickinson Red Devils by a 26-0 count. Scoring TD's were Derrick, Rebuck, and Bowman (all seniors) and John "The Bullet" Luscko.

Grotesque? Yes, but mighty effective.

This is the sort of thing that slowed Luscko down all year.

SOCCKER 1960

Susquehanna's second year soccer team, coached by Bill Heim, and featuring a great deal of freshman talent, compiled a seasonal record of three wins and five defeats. Despite a losing season a growing amount of interest has been created during the season and is bound to increase even more as do the fortunes of the Crusader booters.

INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL

VARSITY BASKETBALL

With the advent of winter, the athletic S. U. co-eds now turn their thoughts to the forthcoming basketball season. Under the direction of Coach Betsy McDowell, the team earnestly prepared for its first match with Lock Haven. Unfortunately, the lasses of this campus proved to be too strong for the S. U. six. With a burning desire for victory, the team snapped back to slip past Bloomsburg, 38-31. High hopes for a second victory died when a rematch with Lock Haven on their home boards ended in a 50-30 decision in the opponent's favor.

The girls ended the season with a 2-2 record as they cruised to an easy 50-31 victory over Wilkes in their last match of the season.

The odor of burning leaves, the appearance of colorful foliage, and the ringing of school bells herald the arrival of fall. To the sports-minded individual, fall is the season of thudding footballs and clammering hockey sticks. This year a new chapter was added to S. U. sports manual, the dawn of women's intercollegiate sports. The varsity eleven, under the director of Miss M. Kay Cochran, nobly waged campaigns against Bucknell, Lock Haven, Penn State, and Dickinson. Although they did not conquer all their foes, the valuable experience gained from this first year will be an important asset to their future success.

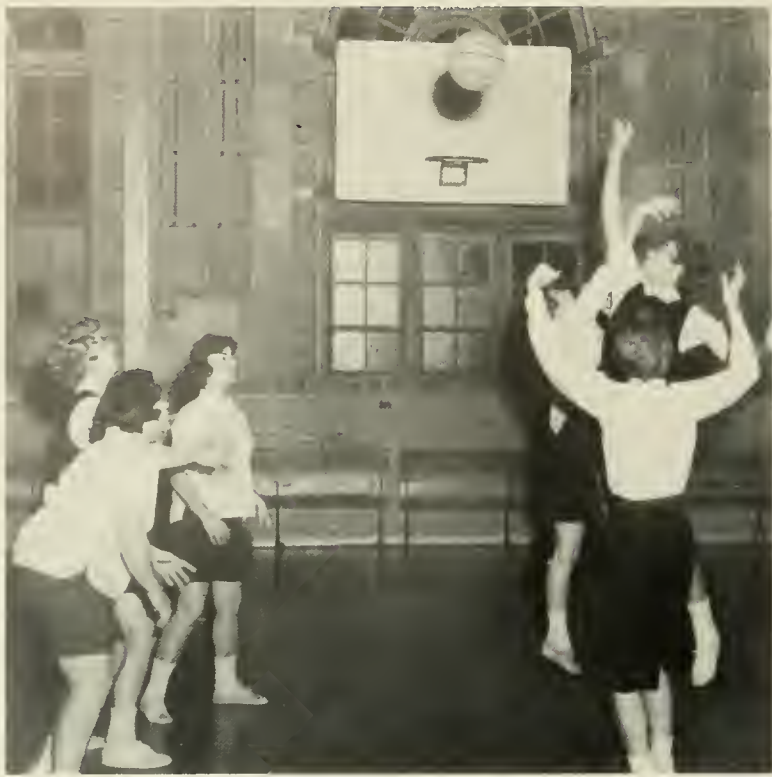

Captain Joan Lawley and team members discuss pre-game tactics with Coach Cochran.

BASKETBALL

Coach Barr, Co-captains George and Bill Moore accept the trophy won by Susquehanna in the Upsala Invitational Tournament.

Mosier shoots while Gallagher waits—just in case.

This looks a little like football, only the pants are shorter.

Finishing the season with an enviable 17-6 record, Coach John Barr's 1960-61 eagers became the winningest basketball team in University history. With a starting unit comprised of seniors Maurice Bobst and George Moore, sophomores Jim Gallagher, Clark Mosier, and Bill Moore consistently searing the nets, the Crusader cage unit could never be taken lightly by opposing teams. Only Temple, Westminster, and Hofstra, each highly touted in their own right, were able to overcome the capable, hustling hoopsters.

Highlighting the season were the winning of the Upsala College Holiday Invitational Basketball Tournament, the prolific scoring of Mosier, the field goal percentage of Gallagher, the consistent rebounding of Bill Moore, and the sheer height plus ability of 6' 7" Tom McCarrick.

Dancing at the Phi Mu Delta Winter Formal to the music of the Jones Boys.

"Dancing in a Winter Wonderland." A slight modification of the classic winter song aptly described the Phi Mu Delta Winter Formal. Dinner and dancing was provided for the brothers and their dates while the Jones Boys supplied the entertainment.

The orange and black were well represented in campus intramural and intercollegiate activities. At Homecoming the Phi Mu Delta float, "A tribute to Amos Alonzo Stagg" was well received.

Following the football game the returning Phi Mu Deltas visited the fraternity house and then attended the annual banquet at the Blue Hill Restaurant.

ALPHA DELTA PI

After hours, three sisters, sleepy-eyed, but enthusiastic, prepare for AD Pi's shoe shine.

"C'est si bon" were the key words of the evening as the sisters of Alpha Delta Pi began the year in a French fashion. The sisters and their dates enjoyed the atmosphere of a Parisienne Cafe at their annual Co-ed Party.

A brighter Christmas and happier Easter was provided for children in the area at the traditional AD Pi parties. Other philanthropic activities included spring and winter variety shows at the Selinsgrove State School and contributions to national charitable organizations.

Following the Parent's Day football game, it was the sisters' turn to treat "Mom and Dad" as KD parents attended a banquet in their honor. Entertainment for the evening was provided by the sorority in the form of a serenade.

College Scholarships . . .
190 awarded in 1960-61.

Congratulations, graduates

For four years you've been passing tests, socially and academically. Now, you face the real "final tests"—the ones you've been preparing for at school: earning a living, marriage, children, providing a home. When you know you must provide, it's reassuring to remember that as a Lutheran you can turn to such outstanding insurance as the Brotherhood Provider Plan for the financial support that will help you build a better life for yourself and your family. For full details, call your Lutheran Brotherhood campus representative today.

Spring Supplement

1961 LANTHORN

Susquehanna University

With the coming of spring bright, cheerful music echoes forth from Heilman Hall, the home of S. U.'s chimes.

During the time when the exams are being given the campus actually seems deserted. Here Bogar Hall and Steele Science are the scene of the semester testing.

The library provides a haven for study and is a reservoir of knowledge. During exam week and times when term papers are due it is the most popular spot on campus. Here students relax a bit from their studies.

The trees begin to show green, the grass requires mowing, and the little flower garden behind G. A. Hall exhibits a myriad of colors. It's springtime at S. U. Across the campus all the familiar signs inform the student that the season of new life has begun. In a matter of weeks the final exams take place as well as all of the other events that herald the spring. Sunbathing, picnics, the long walks around campus, and a swim at Halfway Dam are all part of the spring memories of Susquehanna.

SPRINGTIME 1961

The historic meteorite marks the path near the science building. In the distance Selinsgrove Hall is seen as the spring season descends on the campus.

Two students leisurely walk along the tree-covered paths that lead across the S. U. campus.

Mike Voiles breaks the tape, and Grant Schneider follows closely behind as the two Crusader trackmen gain first and second place for Susquehanna.

Under the direction of Coach Jim Garrett the Susquehanna track team participated in its second intercollegiate season. Although winning only one meet the team performed admirably and fell short of victory on several occasions only because of a lack of depth.

TRACK 1961

First Row—Coach Jim Garrett, Mike Rupprecht, Dave Smith, Bob Richards, Jim Updegrove, George Harris, Gerry Waxman, Tom Samuel, Ed Jones, Dick Howe, Jay Snyder, Manager. Second Row—Al Thomas, Bob Curtis, Grant Schneider, Jim Papada, Jim Van Zandt, Ken Mutzel, David M. Smith, Bruce Sabin.

BASEBALL 1961

Members of S. U.'s baseball team have some pre-game batting practice.

The Crusader baseball team chalked up its finest season in recent years as it split a twelve game schedule 6-6. Fine pitching and clutch hitting helped the charges of Coach Robert Bastress record the first .500 or better season since 1941.

TENNIS 1961

With the coming of spring S. U. students get some exercise on the newly constructed tennis courts.

Completing their second full season on the intercollegiate scene the Stagg-coached Crusader tennis team scored a better than .500 percentage. With Woernle, Snyder, and Summer leading the way the team scored several decisive victories and were well respected throughout the state.

Theta Chi Fraternity sings its way to first place in the Inter-Fraternity-Sorority Sing.

INTER-FRATERNITY-SORORITY SING

With competition at its highest level in recent years the annual S.A.I. Inter-Fraternity-Sorority Sing proved a huge success. Special guests who introduced the program were the members of the local Barber Shop Quartet of America. All the hard work and practice were soon put on display as each group presented its selections. Theta Chi Fraternity carried off first place honors as it successfully defended its championship. Second place went to Kappa Delta Sorority while Alpha Delta Pi earned the third position.

Sigma Alpha Iota, which sponsors the sing annually, entertains the anticipating audience during the judging.

The local barber shop quartet renders some catchy tunes at the beginning of the program.

A Hawaiian motif is the setting for one of Phi Mu Delta's spring parties.

It's just like looking for a needle in a haystack at Lambda Chi Alpha's Hobo party.

Children of faculty members gathered to the campus to participate in the AXiD-sponsored Easter Egg Hunt.

Peg Thoman, Jane Beers, Linda Wassam, and Jim and Larry Skinner model sportswear at Theta Chi's Spring Fashion Show.

Phi Mu Delta and Alpha Delta Pi jointly entertain the area's retarded children at their annual Easter party.

Members of the fraternity pitch in and help at the Lambda Chi Alpha Car Wash.

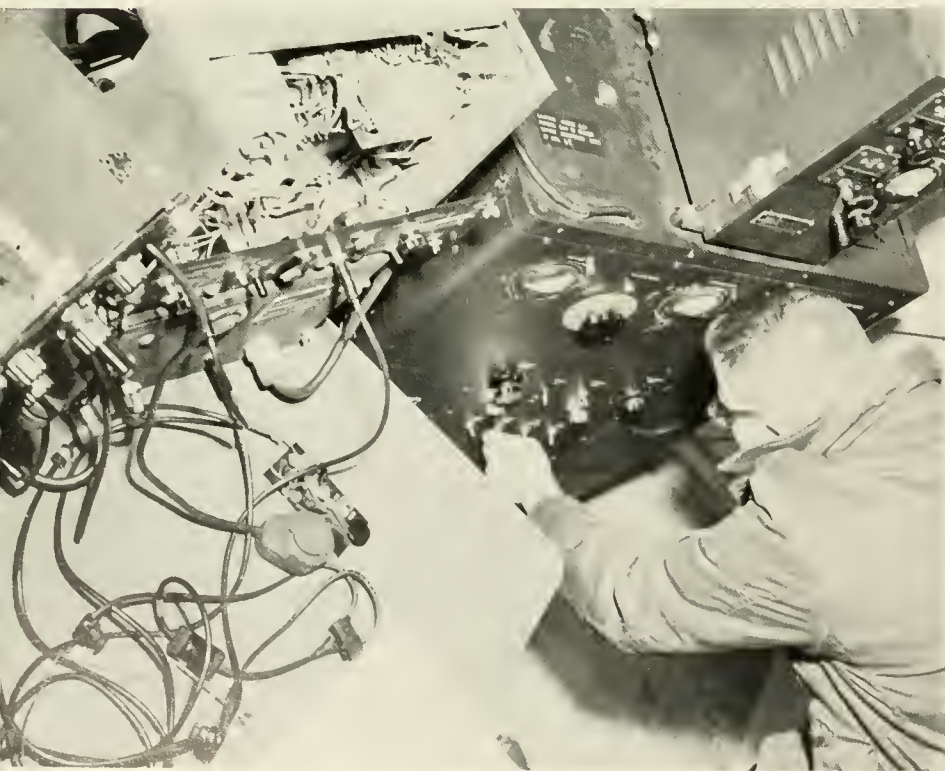

After the last deadline the LANTHORN staff sponsored a photo-sale in G. A. lounge featuring extra pictures of student interest.

Rudy Van der Heil examines the intricate equipment used by the newly formed Radio Club.

Ed Jones displays his strength as he tosses the discus in the Intramural Track Meet.

The dummy situated in G. A. lounge invited faculty and students to R. E.

The Rev. George K. Bowers was guest speaker for the Religious Emphasis program presented by the Student Christian Association.

Lynn Manning played the role of Desdemona in this year's Shakespearean presentation, Othello.

Walt Fox, in the title role of Othello, studies his lines in preparation for the 1961 Shakespearean Festival.

MAY DAY 1961

QUEEN ANNAMAE HOCKENBROCK

A tempo of celerity was created at the 1961 May Day pageant as the magnificence of the four seasons unfolded before its captive audience.

In the splendid decor of pastel-colored dresses, the queen and her court viewed the afternoon's pageant from their colonial garden of loveliness.

The ever-stylish refrains of "April Showers," "Winter Wonderland," and the "Good Old Summer Time" filled the air as Susquehanna captured the memorable events and associations which inevitably accompany the four seasons year after year.

To highlight the day's events, the junior class sponsored the annual May Day dance which featured Maynard McKissick, his ten-piece band, and vocalist Vicki Ransom.

*“Spring
Autumn
Winter and Fall”*

Students find delight in the atmosphere of a miniature garden at the May Day dance.

Guest vocalist Vicki Ransom and Maynard McKissick's band.

Four collegians bring back the soft shoe.

The annual May Day festivities begin with the traditional May Pole dance by the freshman coeds.

Professor John Magnus directs the Choir in its Spring television presentation.

The WGAL-TV camera focuses on the attentive choir members.

Mr. Galen Deibler and Mr. Frederic Billman accompanied the Choir in its Spring Concert.

On their way from Pine Lawn, President Weber, Commencement speaker Senator Joseph Clark and Board Vice President John Horn . . .

. . . join the Academic Procession to Bogar Green on Sunday, May 28.

COMMENCEMENT 1961

In glittering sunlight, families and well-wishers watch and listen to the program . . .

. . . as 88 graduates mount Bogar steps—some perhaps for the last time—to receive their diplomas . . .

and Larry Robbins becomes a Marine lieutenant.
